Whiting Lodge Entertains "Ladies"

George C. Whiting Lodge, No. 22, F. A. A. M., entertained its ladies in the Masonic Hall in Wisconsin avenue northwest Tuesday evening. The members turned out in large numbers, accompanied by their wives, daughters, and sweethearts.

They assembled in the lodge room and spent a social hour together and enjoyed themselves greatly renewing old acquaintances.

The guests were then invited to the banquet hall, where they received a hearty welcome by the worshipful master, R. A. Bogley.

The chairman of the entertainment committee, Past Master William Barnheim, introduced George C. Whiting's minstrel troupe, composed of the following: Isaac B. Nordlinger, interloper; Joseph Cross, Daniel Schiller, Edson Brown, and Otto Werner, enigmata; James R. Hall, Ernest Fowler, Melville Barnheim, Thomas Milstead, George Nordlinger, and Mr. Frayne, soloists. Their songs reflected the good cheer of the company, and were enjoyed immensely by all who were fortunate enough to be present.

Miss Blanche Edwards furnished the piano music, accompanied by Mrs. Barnheim, violinist. Refreshments were served, after which the hall was cleared and dancing was enjoyed during the rest of the evening.

Friendship Chapter to Give Theater Party.

Friendship Chapter, No. 17, O. E. S., will hold its regular meeting in the Masonic Temple, Tennallytown, D. C., Tuesday, at 7:30 p. m. After the regular order of business, the degrees will be conferred on a number of candidates.

The different committees have closed their winter's work and are now preparing to take a little recreation in a theater party, to be given at Polk's Theater in New Mexico, on May 15, for the benefit of the chapter.

The various committees made their reports at the last meeting which showed that the winter's campaign had been very successful and reflected great credit on the different committees.

Several new members have been enlisted in Friendship's drill team, and under the directorship of Past Master Edith Lynde, several new features will be introduced.

King Solomon Lodge to Celebrate Anniversary.

Rev. J. Henning Neils, grand chaplain of King Solomon Lodge, No. 31, F. A. A. M., will conduct services to be held in honor of the ninth anniversary of the Daylight Lodge, at the Church of the Ascension, Massachusetts street and Twelfth street northwest, this morning.

The members will assemble at the lodge at 9 o'clock, where a special communion will be held, after which they will proceed in a body to the church.

R. Christian, John J. Pepper, Stanley H. Ridings, Fred H. Berger, James W. Hughes, Daniel L. Leane, and Henry J. Frank.

All councils in the District of Columbia are to elect representatives to the assembly during the month of May. The assembly will meet in Washington on Tuesday, June 16, at 8 p. m., in pursuance of the provisions of law 24 of the laws of the National Union, and will elect four representatives to the senate.

The assembly will elect a number of members of an executive committee of five, and transact such other business as is provided by the laws of the order. Representatives, together with an equal number of alternates, should be elected at the regular meeting of the council this month. If not elected at the May meeting, they may be elected at a special meeting held on or before June 15, at the first regular meeting in June if such meeting occurs before June 15. None but presidents and ex-presidents and council officers are eligible for election as representatives to the assembly, except as provided in law 24, section 2, but it is not essential that those elected to the senate be members of the assembly.

William H. Collins Council met at its council chamber Thursday evening. Several applications for membership were received. Fred Goldstein, of Congressional Council, presented the greetings of his council and addressed the meeting in his usual happy manner.

The National Union male quartet met Thursday evening and rehearsed several new selections. The quartet will be ready to sing for the councils in the near future.

J. O. U. A. M.

The "grand class initiation" of the order, under the direction of State Council James A. Madison, Jr., and his staff, who opened the ceremonies, took place Wednesday night at the old Masonic Temple, Ninth and F streets northwest. About three hundred and fifty members of the order witnessed the work, with representatives from the following councils of the Virginia jurisdiction: James W. Jackson Council, No. 55, of Alexandria; Belle Haven Council, No. 51, of Alexandria; St. Elmo Council, No. 155, of St. Elmo; and Ballston Council, No. 221, of Ballston, all of which presented candidates for the class. The ceremonies were opened by State Council James A. Madison, Jr., a member of Washington Council, No. 12, of this jurisdiction, who delivered a very important address to the members of the importance of attending their council meetings. There were ninety-six candidates admitted. Edward J. Ross, Council, No. 26, conferred all of the three degrees under the direction of his captivity. Past Council George W. Swift performed the military parts of the ceremonies.

Following the initiation, the lodge adjourned to the basement, where a social session was enjoyed. Brother Sol Richmond was appointed chairman of the session. Past Exalted Ruler Henry J. Weber, of South Orange, N. J., gave the 11 o'clock toast in a manner different from that ever given before in Washington Lodge. The following talent assisted in making the occasion a memorable one: Lewis Brown, song; Robert Lawrence, of Cincinnati Lodge, No. 5, with the Bert Baker Company at the Gayety, "Chicago at the Bat." Bert Baker, of Chicago Lodge, No. 4, from the Gayety Theater, Irish stories; E. L. Hutchinson, of Washington Lodge, songs; A. Cordover, songs; Jacques Heidenheimer, accompanist during the evening. William Joseph Keane, one of the newly initiated members, made his maiden speech. Many congratulations are due the stewards for the excellent manner in which the repast was served.
